CAREER OBJECTIVE:

As a final-year Interior Design student, I aim to bridge design theory with hands-on execution. My expertise in space planning, material selection, and sustainable practices allows me to create environments that are not only beautiful but also practical and aligned with client aspirations. I am committed to delivering impactful solutions through thoughtful design.

Best Work of 2nd Year Assignment Folio

In this project, I created detailed residential floor plans, interior elevations, and 3D renders using AutoCAD, SketchUp, and V-Ray. I designed a retail space for Lenskart, explored contemporary design through a case study, and conducted a wallpaper market survey that included product specs and pricing. This work reflects my practical knowledge in space planning, visualization, and material selection.

Best Work of 1st Year Assignment Folio

In this residential design folio, I developed a modern bedroom interior with a focus on minimalism, functionality, and material balance. Using digital tools like Google SketchUp, I worked on prototype development, structural basics, space planning, scale drawing, and material market study to create a cohesive, user-centric interior solution.

Residential Space Planning Project

I developed a two-storey residential design focused on sustainable planning, climate responsiveness, and family comfort. The layout emphasized zoned spaces, natural ventilation, daylight optimization, and practical functionality for a modern suburban home in Rajasthan.
